Priority Financial Group Receives Top Honor

Phoenix, Arizona – March 19, 2020 – Priority Financial Group (PFG) of Phoenix, Arizona, announced today it has been named to Securities America’s 2020 Circle of Stars list, which recognizes Securities America’s top 15 branches based on 2019 production. Priority Financial Group was further recognized as the broker-dealer’s top branch at Securities America’s Masters Forum event.

“Securities America is proud to honor Priority Financial Group’s outstanding business achievements for 2019,” said Jim Nagengast, Securities America’s CEO and president. “Ranking as the top branch among all of our branches across the nation is a remarkable accomplishment.”

Priority Financial Group joined Securities America in 2017 and has one of the most “friendly” hybrid RIA/OSJ models in the industry. PFG specializes in providing customized compliance, operations and wealth management services to credit unions, banks, and independent financial advisors. It offers financial advisors multiple affiliation models to support the way they choose to do business.

Those affiliations include bank or credit union options, a true independent model, and a cross-platform option, which provides employee benefit package, new sources of leads/revenue, and continued ownership of the Advisor’s personal book.
